Area Teachers Honored for Teacher Appreciation Week

Senator Sanborn presented “apples for the teacher” to several area educators

(LANSING) – Senator Alan Sanborn, R-Richmond, honored several area teachers in acknowledgment of Teacher Appreciation Week. Sanborn visited six Macomb County schools today and presented apples to special teachers in recognition of their commitment to education.

“It is wonderful to be able to recognize local teachers who have made a positive impact on their students’ lives,” Sanborn said. “My wife is a teacher and I know first hand the positive influence a child’s teacher can have on their education.”

Senator Sanborn visited several schools in the 11th district including: Duncan Elementary in Shelby Township where he honored teacher Brad Potter; L’Anse Creuse East Middle School in Chesterfield Township where he recognized teacher Cheryl Day; L’Anse Creuse North in Macomb Township where he recognized teacher Linda Golf; L’Anse Creuse Atwood Elementary in Macomb Township; Edward Siefert Elementary in Ray Township; and Mount Clemens High School.

Senator Sanborn represents the 11th District which consists of the Townships of Bruce, Chesterfield, Harrison, Lenox, Macomb, Ray, Shelby and Washington; and Armada, Memphis, Mount Clemens, New Baltimore, New Haven and Romeo.
